Send Your Letters to Santa – in Braille

(LANCASTER, Penna.) Nov. 29, 2021 – Children of all ages are invited to write to Santa – in braille.

“This ageless tradition of writing a letter to Santa is available to children who are blind or vision-impaired,” said Dennis Steiner, president and CEO of VisionCorps.

“We invite children to send their letters to Santa and tell him why they deserve to be on the ‘nice list,’” said Steiner. “Each letter will receive a response from Santa, also in braille, and a reward for their hard work.”

Others – of all ages – who want to write to Santa in braille are also invited to participate, said Steiner.

“This is a great opportunity to practice writing and reading in braille,” said Steiner.

Send letters to: Santa’s Attention, VisionCorps (Erika Rothermel), 244 N. Queen St., Lancaster, PA. 17603.
